NEW YORK October 21 .- [Special.]-The lorsement to-day by the conventions of Trying Hall and the County Democracy of mayoralty puts the second democratic candidate in the field. Municipal politics here now begins to get exciting, interest is ese, and is beginning to attract most as much attention as the campaign of the various presidential candidates. The manyites are bold and determined, the penty Democracy and Irving Hall bitter and working with a vim, and the republicans re as cool but confident, basing their hopes a continuance of the schism in the demo-They stand but little showing bowever, and the probability is that the next mayor of New York will be either Hugh Grant, Tammany's nominee, or ex-Mayor William R. The question new being most generally considered among ticians of the city is the effect democratic nominations will have the vote of the city in the presidential ion. Democrats all concede that it will sult in the poll of a larger vote for the accratic candidates. Grant and Grace are oth immensely wealthy and both have the of the people. Both are personal ds of Governor Cleveland, and will rein faithful to him with their influence Both wings of the party will make a most est fight and will spare no means nor encourse this will help Cleveland. In the ity of New York there are 720 election preis, at each one of which Tammany will e eight workers, paid at the rate of from we to ten dollars for their day's work. This rill give Tammany 13,000 active and paid apporters at the polls on the day of the These workers will

Michigan and Ilis are becoming so alarmed that the most ent importunities are being sent to the blican committee by the managers in se states for funds to build up in those tes what the nomination of Blaine has oken down.

Iowa and California republicans want ds, and the more the better, otherwise, se states, now doubtful, may tumble in the eratic column. To sum it up, the relicans cannot afford to put that amount ich is necessary in New York city, unless be taken from other quarters, which are olutely in need of it.

In New York city the democrats are united e national ticket and are working unde most admirable system. The nominaof the two branches of the democracy the mayoralty of the ticket will unbtedly help Cleveland. Had the county ocracy and Irving hall indorsed the amany ticket it would have given offense to a large element of independent republians, their press and many regular democrats and it might have cost Cleveland a very large de. As it is, all branches are united on leveland and Hendricks. There is nothing It the most flagrant treachery in Tamhany hall that will lose Cleveland any votes. ce the all-absorbing question is, "Will mmany prove faithful?" It will. THE TAMMANY TURNOUT.

Over 20,000 Men in Line-Speeches by Bay. New York, October 21.—Immense crowds of people assembled to-night in and about 14th and 5th streets, and Irving Place, to attend the great Tammany ratification meeting. There was speak-ing from six or seven different stands in that part ing from six or seven different stands in that part of the city, but the principal meeting was in Tammany hall, which was packed to its utmost capacity. Mayor Edson, who presided, read letters from a number of prominent democrats, and after a few brief remarks, introduced to the audience as the first speaker, Senator Bayard, of Delaware, who was received by an enthusiastic greeting. Seldom has any speaker met such a welcome in this city. At almost every sentence he was interrupted by applause, which at the close of his address, swelled into a great outburst of excitement and enthusiasm. He was followed by ex-Governor John B. Carroll, of Maryland, and ex-Senator Thurman both of whom were loudly cheered. Resolutions were unautinously adopted indorsing Cleveland and Hendricks and the Tammany nominations for city offices and judges of the court of appeals, and commending them to all who desire good government, and who are interested in having the offices filled by men of moral courage, unwavering honesty and devotion to the trusts committed to their care. During the speaking a monster procession, consisting of more than 20,000 torch-bearer's, marched past Tammany hall, and the several outside stands, and filled that part of the city with a glare of torches and fireworks, and a great of continuous cheering.

The German American independent association to-night indorsed the county democ

How the Pensions Abomination is Explained Away. WASHINGTON, October 21.-Under date of New Jork. October 11, 1884, Mr. Everett P. Wheeler sen he following communication to President Arthur which was referred to the secretary of the interio which was reterred to the secretary of the laterist for investigation and report:

Sir. The business of the pension bureau is very much in arrears. Colonel W. W. Dudley, commissioner of pensions, is now absent from his post, engaged in conducting the canvass of the republican party in Ohio, to the entire neglect of his official duties. We see it publicly stated, and not denied, that he has given orders that applications for pensions filed by voters residing in Ohio and Indiana shall be taken up out of the critical over those filed by persons residing in many other states. As counsel for the civil service reform association, I respectfully ask that an immediate examination of these charges be made. The theory of the laws granting pensions is that these gifts from the treasury of the whole country are made to those veterans who need them. To use the fears or hopes of the faithful soldier of the union for the nurpose of obtaining yotes; to discriminate in favor of those residing in states where the presidential election is doutsful, and against those residing elsewhere, would be the worst form of bribery. I respectfully ask you to direct that, if any such orders have been given, they be revoked, and that applications for pensions be considered in their order without partiality or discrimination. Your obtains the servant, Evergett P. Wheelers. or investigation and report:

THE ANSWER MADE. The communication was referred by the acting retary, Joslyn, to O. P. G. Clark, acting commis ioner of pensions, who to-day made a report in which, after recapitulating the subject matter of the charges, he says:

Upon these points I will state briefly that Commissioner Dudley left this city on or about September 3 last, when the duties of the office devolved on me. On or about September 30th uit, Colonel Dudley returned to the city, and while here handed you his resignation as the here handed you his resignation as sejoner of pensions, to take effect Novem-next. He again left the city on October returned on the 16th of October. During ence of the commissioner of pensions no ence of action has been given pension those residing either in Ohio or Indiana.

precedence of action has been given pension cases to those residing either in Ohio or Indiana, or in fact for any purpose within the scope of Mr. Wheeler's statement, nor have I received from Colonel Dudley, either before his departure from the city or during his absence, any orders or instriction relating to this subject. I am not aware, nor have I amy specific instructions to any of the subordinate of the office had been given by Colonel Dudley, with a view to secure such partial action or discrimination, in the settlement of pension claims for the purposes referred to by Mr. Wheeler, to the detriment of others equally deserving would be so criminally unjust, that I may be pardoned in emphasizing my denial, so far as my action or knowledge ever can go, that any such favoritism has been shown, even. I may add by indirection. I am, sir, very respectfully,

A TOWN AFLAME. CARTHAGESWEPT BY A DEVOUR-

ING FIRE.

A Most Destructive Conflagation, Which Breaks Out in a Dozen Places at One Time, and Sweeps Everything in Its Path-The People Great Destitution, Etc.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., October 21,-The Car thage fire was the most disastrous that has ever visited this part of the state. It began in the rear of the manufacturing buildings on the west side of Black river, and a heavy wind blew sharp from across the river to the two islands, which were filled with manufacturing institutions. Everything on the island was burned, and the fire struck into the residence part of the town, and swept the buildings from about 75 acres. This was the oldest part of the town, and contained beautiful shady streets with fine dwellings, but to-day this territory is a mass of smouldering ruins. One hundred and sixty dwellings were burned, besides the manufacturing institutions and the Episcopal, Presbyterian, Baptist and Disciples' town hall, academy and all other town hall, academy and all other school buildings. The fire spread so rapidly that a very little portion of the goods could be saved. The fire departments from Watertown, Lawville, Boonville and Utisa responded to the call for help, but as the fire would appear in a dozen different places at one time, the streams from the engines were of little avail. The yards were filled with dry leaves, which were ignited by the flying circlers, and fanned by a stiff breeze, were soon in a blaze. There were one hundred dwellings on fire at the same time. The people worked hard for several hours to hundred dwellings on fire at the same time. The people worked hard for several hours to save their property. Then they became panie stricken, and all last night hundreds of them were running the streets or lying in the spots which the fire had not touched. Every place of shelter in the village being filled with women and children, a large number of people were brought to this city, where they had friends to care for them. It is impossible to correctly picture the scene of yesterday afternoon and last night. Strong men were weeping and women and children crying as they realized that everything they were weeping and women and children crying as they realized that everything they possessed was being swept away. Most of those who lost dwellings, owned them, having secured them by the savings, of many years. Not one of those burned out was able to stand the loss. The manufacturers who suffered were doing a good business, and had orders ahead to keep them going all winter. They cannot resume without outside help. The people are thus thrown out of employment with the loss of all they thad, and they will have to suffer unless aid is rendered. A committee has been formed in this city to administer temporary relief, and over $1,000 was raised in an hour. The work in this line will be continued until shelter is provided for the homeless people. The money will be sent to Helen E. Kellby and C. P. Rayther, of Carthage, who can be safely trusted to look be sent to Helen E. Kellby and C. P. Rayther, of Carthage, who can be safely trusted to look after the wants of the people. No one was burned to death, but a score of people were badly burned, including the firemen. The less will foot up over half a million dollars. The insurance cannot now be given, but the agents say it will not reach one-third of that amount.

FIRE IN PAWTUCKET.

The Sudden Spread of the Flames-Firemen Injured.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., October 21 .- Just before one o'clock this afternoon a fire was discovered in the planing mill in the lumber and coal yard of J. F Cottrell, at Pawtucket. The yard was filled with wooden buildings, coal sheds and piles of dry lumber. By the time the local fire department reached the scene the whole yard seemed to be in flames. Aid was asked for and sent from this city and Central Falls. The air was filled with glowing cinders which the stift breeze carried all over the town, and yery many buildings were on fire before the alarm had finished sounding. The buildings of the Pawtucket coal company, adjoining Cottrell's, also took fire, endangering the other buildings. H. L. C. Dorsey's dwelling, on Elm street, was badly burned. The Pawtucket coal company's building, and those of Cottrell were entirely consumed, but the other fires set by the flying sparks were gotten under control. Byron Ecynolds, a fireman, fell off the roof of a building and was seriously injured. Another fireman was knecked into the fire by a stream of water, and quite severely burned. Cottrell's loss is estimated at from $50.000 and the other losses will Cottrell, at Pawtucket. The vard was filled with

Cotton on Fire. CRAWFORD, Ga., October 21.-[Special.]-As cotton was being loaded on the cars here, Monday when the eighth car was nearly loaded, the wheels of the trucks ran over a match, which had in some way got on the floor of the car. The match struck fire, which caught the bale on the trucks, and from that to others. Immediately three bales were at once thrown from the car on the off side from the depot. All the cotton in the car being now on fire, the doors were closed. Enough citizens arrived to push the seven cars, already loaded, alguarter of a mile from the depot and the burning car was also carried a safe distance where it burned down on the track. Excitemen was great, as over a hundred bales were then on platform of depot, and had it caught it would have burned the whole west side of town. Great credit is due the citizens and especially some negroes who worked nobly. One car and load of cotton was all the damage. It was impossible to have saved more or in any way lessened when the eighth car was nearly loaded, the wheels

He Sinks to the Slums in His Efforts to Gain Votes.
FORT WAYNE, Ind.. October 21.—The following emarkable passage occurred in Mr. Blaine's speech bere: The October elections in Ohio and West Virginia have put a new phase on the national contest, or rather they have reproduced the old phase. The democratic party, as of old, consider now that they have the solid south again. They believe they have the solid south again. They believe that they will surely set 153 electoral votes from the sixteen southern states, and then they expect, or they hope, or they dream that they may secure New York and Indiana, and that with New York and Indiana and the nation. I do not believe that the featurers, the merchants, the mechanics and last of all, and most of all, I do not believe that the soldiers of Indiana can be put to that use. I do not believe that the men who added luster and renown to the name of yeur state through four years of bloody war can be used to call to the administration of the government the men who organized the great rebellion. In the senate of the United States the democratic party have 37 members, of which number 32 come from the south. Of their strength in the house of representatives, the majority of representatives comes from the south; and now the intention is, with an absolutely solidified electoral vote from the seuth, added to the votes of the two states I have named, to seize the government of the union. That means a great deal; it means that as the south furnishes three-fourths of the democratic strength it will be given the lead and control the nation in event of a democratic triumph. It means that the great financial and industrial system of the country shall be placed under the direction of the south; that our currency, our banks and our tariffs, our internal revenue laws—in short, that our whole system upon which the business of this country depends the triumph would be a fearful misfortune section.

Ich a triumph would be a fearful misfortune he south itself. That section, under the wise his istration of the government by the republic for the past ten years in all the elements of crial prosperity. It has added enorsisty to its wealth since the e of the war, and shared fully in the cral advance of the country. To call that see how to the rule of the nation would disturb two sectional and political equality, rekindle idering passions and, under the peculiar leading to the the two distributions of resentment, of real, of revenge. No greater misfortune than could come to the nation or to the south. It did come as a reaction against the of a solid south I am sure that Indiana will protest, and, on the whole, will conclude to stan where she has stood in the past.

THE ARMY REPORT.

Paymuster-General Rochester on the Financial Wing of the Service. WASHINGTON, October 21.—Paymaster-Genera Rechester, in his annual report to the secretary of war, says that the total amount available for the iscal year ended June 30, 1884, was $15,180,161, and fiscal year ended June 30, 1884, was $15,180,161, and the total amoint disbursed was $13,250,750, leaving a balance of $1,292,411. He commends the present system of depositories for public funds. He regrets the discontinuance of the derositories of Sania Fe and San Antonio, and recommends their re-establishment. He also recommends that an appropriation of $175,000 be made for the mileage of officers for the fiscal year 1886, and says there will undoubtedly be a deficiency in the appropriation for the present fiscal year, which is $160,000, unless great restrictions are imposed on the issuing of orders abat contemplate the payment of mileage. It is again recommended that the law forbidding the payment of mileage to army officers over land grant roads be repealed. Attention is called to the former recommendation in regard to the importance of a change in the law relating to the difficial bonds of the paymaster and the passage of the bill, senate 1556, introduced at the last session of congress, is praged. The bond of an approved guarantee company would, if accepted as security, be a great relief to many officers. A limit of at least four years, during which the bond will be approved, should be fixed, and the surettes should be released from liability if the government fails to bring suit within five years after the bond expires. It is recommended fails to bring suit within five years after the bond expires. It is recommended that the paragraph of the army regulations forbidding an officer from the issuing, hypothecation or transferring of his pay account actually due at the time, should be enforced, and no longer treated as a dead letter.

"GALLANTRY" DISCOUNTED.

Win Laurels, Boston, October 21.—A special from Albany states that Henry A. Hogeboom, a farm hand who claims to have discovered the obstruction on the track which wrecked the Boston and Albany train treck which wrecked the Boston and Albany train at Kinderhook Friday night, has been arrested on suspicion. The theory is held that the act was committed, not with malicious intent, but in the hope of flagging the train, when he intended to acquaint the passengers with the fact that he had saved their lives, in the expeciation that he would be handsomely remunerated for his "gallantry." The experiments show that the man could place the rails across the track and remove them inside of ten minutes.

THE LONG DROUTH.

THREE MONTHS WITHOUT SHADE

WASHINGTON, October 21 .- An officer of the signal service said, relative to the long continued drouth, that during September it existed in all sections east of the Mississippi valley, ond in Texas. General rains have fallen during October in Tennessee, the Ohio valley and the lake region, but the drouth has continued in the middle Atlantic, south Atlantic and gulf states. The little rain that has fallen has not been enough to do any good to the crops in these sections. At Atlanta.Ga ... rain has not fallen for over two months, and it is estimated that the cotton crop in tha vicinity will fall short forty per cent. Near Shreveport, La., it is estimated that the cotton crop will be only two-thirds of an average. In the vicinity of Petersburg, Va., it has become necessary to close the cotton factories on, account of the scarcity of water. The officer reportsof the scarcity of water. The officer reportsindications of light rain in this vicinity soon, and says there is a heavy rain storm in the lake regions. There has been no rain of consequence in or about Washington for nearly three months. The shade trees along the streets and in the parks are showing the effects of the long drouth. Grass in many places is dead, and in several instances has jurged when accidentally fired like the grass.

The Dry Spell in Virginia. NORFOLK, Va., October 21.—No rain of consequence has fallen in this section of the state since the middle of August, and the farming and trucking interests have suffered severely. Rains now

urned when accidentally fired, like the grass

would be of little use, except to avert a water fam-ne. The earth is litterly perished, and slight for-rest firsh ave occured along the line of the rail-roads, but no serious losses thus far are reported.

The Frankfort Gazette predicts the failure of the conference, unless English hostility ceases. It says the American government has given Germany to understand that it will not sustain the enterprise if directed against England, and Portugal sides with England rather than risk her pretension to the possession of much of Congo. Holland, distrusting Germany, is inclined to see in all action against England a strategetic movement of which the final object is the annexation of Holland. Italy's colonial interests are opposed to those of France, and she also supports England.

The Financial Outlook at Liverpool. LONDON, October 21 -- In reference to the Standard's statements concerning the financial outlook at Liverpool, it is said that the position of the produce people has been strengthened by the rise in sugar, so that no trouble is anticipated. It is explained that also a meeting of the creditors referred to was concerned with the private estate of one the purtners in the steamship company, and had nothing to do with the company's business or condition.

The remains were those of "Willis," a colored deaf mute, well known in this community. The man had been struck by a freight locomotive a few miles out of the city on the savannah, Griffin and North Alabania railway and crushed to death. A coroner's jury viewed the remains at a late hour, and after hearing the cyldence acquirted the railway people of all blame. Willis being deaf, had simply been rail down and killed. The corpse was removed to the city hall on Wednesday morning, and afterwards intered at the expense of the railroad company.

THE BALLY IN TAYLOR.

Judge Lester Makes an Impression Upon the Fourth District Voters. BUILER, Ga., October 21.-[Special.]-Saturday last was a "red letter day" for the organized democracy in this county. According to previous appointment, the Hon. Henry R. Harris, the demappointment, the Hon. Henry R. Harris, the democratic nominee of the fourth congressional district, and Judge George N. Lester, one of the electors for the state at large, made speeches to a large and very enthusiastic audience. We have an independent candidate for congress in this district in the person of Capain Henry Persons, and hence the "political pot has been boiling hot" for some time, but from now on we will hardly be able to get up a simmer; as the enthusiasm is almost entirely with the organized. This county can now be put down for the nominee in the opinion of your correspondent. Of the speeches, scarcely too much can be said in praise of them. Colonel Harris, in that dignified manily way, (which by the way is a character istic of the man) talked over the politics of the fourth district, and discussed the national issues in such a way that convinced his hearest that he was well qualified to take care of himself on the stump, and to represent them with distinction in congress. It is useless for me to attempt a description of Judge Lester's speech or the impression it made on our people. He captured his audience with his opening remarks and held them completely until the close of the same, sometimes almost convulsing them with laughter and then, with words of burning eloquence, stiring them to the deepest depth. You know Judge Lester always makes a fine speech. His style was a revelation to our people. ocratic nominee of the fourth congressional dis

From the Americus, Ga., Recorder.

The cotton gin of Mr. William Usrey, about six miles from this place, on the Friendship road, o'clock. The fire was seen in the city, and the fire alarm sounded. The fire caught in the lint room, and in spite of all efforts the house and gin and six bales of cotton were consumed. The loss was about $1,500, with no instrance.

From the Albany, Ga., News. Cotton losses follow swift on each other. On Thursday evening, about six o'clock, the gin the standard the control of Mr. J. W. Armstrong, guardian for Miss Dollie Mou hon, was burned to the ground. It contained about fifteen bales of cotton in the seed, and near a thousand bushels of cotton seed, belonging to Mr. D. E. Nelms, There was $500 on the cotton, and $300 on the seed. The house was insured for $2.25 in favor of Mr. J. W. Armstrong, guardian, etc.

From the Milton, Ga., Democrat. Mr. Mack Walker, at Mr. John F. Williams's , had his arm caught in the sa and fearfully lacerated. Dr. Thomason was d in and dressed the wounds, and thinks the may be saved.

Mr. W. H. Mansell, at Lime Branch, Polk county, Ga., had the misfortune to have his house and most of its contents burned on the 3d instant. The burning was the result of an accident, and probably caught from the fuel of the stove.

From the Jubblin, Go. Gozette. From the Dublin, Ga., Gazette.

On Monday morning last, about 2 o'clock, the store house of Walker & Dargan was destroyed by fire. Mr. Walker saw the flames from his dwell fire. Mr. Walker saw the flames from his dwelling, but when he had reached the store the fre had reached the three the free had reached the three the free had reached a point beyond control. He, however, was able to get his books from the safe, atthough the cinders were falling all around him. Besides the house a stock of goods estimated to be worth five thousand dollars were lost. There was an Insurance of $550 on the house and $2,000 on the goods. This was surely the work of an incendiary as no fire had been in the house since Saturday night. Some think, the fire having originated in that part of the building, that some one wished to burn the books of the firm in order to destroy any accounts held against them.

The Alpine Tragedy Results in the Lynching of the Guilty Pair Who Were Suspected of the Mur-der of Mrs. Davis The Apperance of the Midnight Riders Their Mission,

ROME, Ga., October 21 .- [Special.] -On the mornthe account of the terrible murder of Mrs. Mary H. Davis, in Cherokee county, Alabama, near Alpine, Chattooga county, Georgia. Her uncle J. R. Dorsey and Jane Wade, were arrested for complicity in the crime and lodged in ail at Centre. The sequel to this terrible tragedy occurred last night, when Dorsey jail and lynched. The following details of the affair were received to day, over the wires of the Coosa River telegraph company:

About 11:30 o'clock last night a mob composed of about forty men, three or four of whom were masked, all armed with shotguns, arrived in Cenmasked, all armed with shotguns, arrived in Centre. It is supposed that they came from Chattooga county, Ga., having crossed the Coosa river at Hardwick's ferry, four miles above Cedar Bluff. The mob proceeded to the jail very quietly, so quietly in fact, that the citizens of Centre were not disturbed in their slumbers, and the the mob met with no opposition. The sheriff of Cherokee county was not at home, and his wife, with a young brother of the sheriff, had charge of the jail.

THE JAIL ENTERED, The mob having aroused the sheriff's wile, pro sented their guns and told her the sooner Dorsey and Jane Wade were given up the better it would be for her. Three masked men then seized the keys and entered the jail. The other prisoners were terribly frightened, but the men told them to keep quiet; that they wanted no one but Dorsey and Jane Wade. When the cells of Dorsey and the woman were reached, they were taken without difficulty out of the jail, and placed in a buggy. Jane Wade wept bitterly, but neither she nor Dorsey made any efforts at resistance. Three quarters of a mile from the town the cavalcade halted.

The buggy containing the two culprits was driven under a tree, a rope was lastened around the neck of each and lastened to two limbs of the same tree. The buggy was driven from under-them and Dorsey and Jane Wade were launched into eternity. Dorsey's neck was broken. The woman died of strangulation. They made no confessions.

Death of Mrs. Peatecost.

LAWRENCEVILLE, October 21.—[Special.]—This town and community is bowed down with grief over the death of one of its most beloved ladies, the death, which occurred at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, of Mrs. Phoelia, wife of Mr. F T. Pentecest, and daughter of Mr. W. J. Born. She leaves three children, one being but a few days old. Two years ago she was a perfect picture of health, but that monster of disease, consumption, darkened and shawdowed her pathway, and to day a mound wet with the tears and carlanded with the floavest. set with the tears and garlanded with the flowers of friends and relatives, with a corpse interred, is he result of its terrible workings.

And in thus paying this little last tribute to the memory of the departed it is done with inexpresible sadness and sorrow.

. The Promotion of Captain Cohen.

AUGUSTA, Ga., October 21.-[Special.]-Clarke Light Infantry held an election to-night to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Captain J C. Clarke. The company unanimously promoted First Lieutenant John Jay Cohen, who, with Captain Clarke, has been the life and chief spirit of the company since its organization. Captain C hen accepts it, and will keep up the reputation his popular commander.

In Memory of Davenport Jackson.

Augusta, G., October 21.—[Special.]—The Augusta, gusta bar adopted memorial resolutions in hone of the late Davenport Jackson to-day. The tribute was read in the superior court, and cloquent addresses made by Boykin Wright, W. P. Carroll, Charles Z. McCord, H. D. D Twiggs, Jas. C. C. Ellack, Chas. C. Jones, W. D. Tutt and Judge H. C. Koney. A beautiful letter in memory of the de-ceased from Dr. A. A. Lipscomb was read by W.

A Foundry For Athens.

ATHENS, Ga., October 21.-[Special.]-There is talk of a large foundry and machine shop being opened in Athers at the site now occupied by the Hodgson carriage shops. This company will be composed of some of our wealthiest capitalists together with a certain wealthy planter from Oglethorpe. It is proposed to start the business with $50.000 capital, $40,000 of which will go into machinery, building stock, etc., $10,000 will be reserved to operate with.

Persons in Hogansville.

HOGANSVILLE, Ga., October 21 .- [Special.] - Cap ain Henry Persons was advertised to deliver speech in Hogansville vesterday but as only a very few came out to hear him, he declined, but left an appointment here for next Friday.

The colored people met at the church and in-dorsed Blaine and Logan for president and vice-president, and Milner for congress.

Court in Henry.

McDonough, October 21.-[Special.]-The su-perior court is in session and will continue for two weeks. There is a vast quantity of civil business on the dockets. Since prohibition has gone into effect the criminal business amounts to rething nothing.

John L. Tye, the presidential elector from this district, made an able and telling speech to a large crowd yesterday.

Rome Happenings.

Rome, Ga., October 21,—[Special.]—In DeSoto today Mr. Jack Bice had his hand caught in a gin and it was terribly mangled. He suffered severe psin.

In the superior court to day a twelve year old negro boy was convicted of burgiary and sentenced to twelve months in the pentientiary.

Killing the Dogs. CARTERSVILLE, October 21.-[Special.]-A large number of dogs have been killed in this city under an ordinance of the mayor and aldermen, re-quiring the owners to keep up their dogs, and authorizing the marshals to kill all found running at large. The people say 'let the good work go on.' The Fugitive Merchant. RIVERSIDE, Ala., October 21.—[Special.]—The torchouse of J. R. Coleman & Co. was broke open and robbed. The loss is about $250 or $300.

BARNESVILLE'S RESOLUTIONS. The Citizens Organize for the Era of Rebuilding.

BARNESVILE, October 21.-[Special.]-A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens met last night at Gordon institute chapel to discuss the proposed plan of changing the plat of the business portion plan of changing the plat of the business portion of our town. Great unanimity of sentiment and carnestness of purpose was a marked feature of the of our town. Great unanimity of sentiment and caraestness of purpose was a marked feature of the various speeches, and great enthusism prevailed. There were but a few objections expressed against the proposed change, and these can readily be met and equitably adjusted. Speeches were made by J. W. Burke, of Macon, and Judge Pittman, of Atlanta, who represented business interests in the proposed change, Judge Pittman remarked that the incendiary torch of General Sherman gave Atlanta an opportunity to change the plat of the city of Atlanta, but it has been a source of regret to her citizens sixtee that this favorable opportunity was not improved, and he urged Barnesville to seize this chance to remodel her streets and thoroughfares J. W. Burk expressed a willingness to lend a helping band. Indeed almost all the speeches gave evidence of great harmony and a desire and a determination to make the most of our present opportunity. A committee of citizens was appointed to confer with a similar committee from the the city council, and proceed to put into execution the plan submitted and indorsed by the meeting.

The merry music of the trowel and harmore is ringing about the ruins, and every indication gives promise of building the new Barnesville on a better and broader basis.

The insurance adjusters are coming in and will we trust make prompt and equitable settlement of the losses. Some sufferers, however, are complaining at the spirit manifested by some of the company's representatives, but it is to be depoired that any such disposition should be made evident. Prompt and satisfactory adjustment is the just demand of the hour and most of the companies will doubtless appreciate it.

The father of James' Russell Lowell, the liamous New England poet, was a minister, and preached for several years in Midway, in the good old country of Liberty, in Georgia. A short time before the birth of the poet, the father and expectant mother returned to New England, and thus Mr. Lowell narrowly missed being a native child of Georgia. The fact that this state was the place of his conception and came so near being his birth spot, has made the goodly commonwealth an object of deep interest and affection to the warm-hearted poet. He says his father, however, was about filteen years getting out of his system the sturdy swamp malaria of old Liberty. These pleasant particulars of the poet were told me by Colonel C. C. Jones, between whom and Lowell a close attachment exists.

We see it going the rounds that Father Ryan, the poet-priest of the confederacy, once at New Or-eans, created great amusement by a retort he made to Butler. General Butler's attention was called to the omis-General Butler's attention was called to the omission and an orderly was at once despatched for the father. On the priest's arrival at headquarters, Butler, suspecting the omission to be the result of "rebel" tecling, rudely asked Father Ryan "why he did not attend the summons." "Because I was giving the sacrament to another dying man," responded the priest; "but, general, you are mistaken in supposing I would not gladly bury you all." There are some mistakes in this otherwise veracious any ecdote. It was Father Mullen, and not Fathe Ryan. The old priest, called up at midnight for the purpose of giving the last sacraments to a federal soldier dying of yellow fever, responded with alacrity. This astonished Butler, who was most anxious to entrap the priest in discovered as the remnant of his battery at the ursenal on our Sand hills were made from the bells hat Father Mullen and other patriotic dergymen urned over to the confederacy.

The gentleman who outlines his case below is a nan considerably advanced in life, and is noted for his sterling integrity. His postoffice is Yates-

Mr. John Pearson's Statement. In the spring of 1882 I was attacked with a very bad cough, which continued to grow worse until fall, when I got so weak that I could not get about. I tried a great many kinds of medicine, but con tinued to grow worse. I was notified that I had consumption, and would probably die. Dr. Holloway finally told me to try Brewer's Lung Restorer They sent to Ward's store and got a bottle, and I commenced taking it right away. After taking two or three doses I began to improve, and by the time I had used up one bottle I was able to get on my feet again. I am now in excellent health. I am confident that the Lung Restorer saved my life, and my neighbors are of the same opinio

s the best Lung Remedy ever made, in my ion. Dr. H. promised me that he would write to the manufacturers and tell them of the wonder cure it made in my case. Statement of Mr. Benj. F. Hearndon. Early in November, 1881, while sewing on the machine, my wife was taken with a severe pain in her side, which was soon followed by hemorrhages from her lungs and a severe cough. Fever con menced: she could neither eat or sleep, and in a ew weeks she was reduced to a living skeleton. The attending physician told me that he thought one of her lungs was entirely gone. She could not retain the most delicate nourishment on her stom-ach. I then agreed with Dr. Sullivan, my family physician, to call Dr. Holloway in consultation They made a final examination of the patient and pronounced the case hopeless. Dr. Holloway then suggested the Brewer's Lung Restorer as a last re sort. I sent for a bottle and gave her a dose. I found that she could retain it on her stomach, and after about the third dose I began to notice some improvement in her condition. I continued the medicine regularly, and by the time she had taken two bottles she was able to walk about the house. She is now in better health than she has enjoyed for several years. I believe the Lung Restorer saved her life. We have a family of six children, and some of them grown.

THE democrats of Athens will make a demonstration on Friday night. Athens always toes the mark.

THE Hon. G. Frisbie Hoar has been elected president of the American Antiquarian society. This is as it should be. It is eminently fit and proper that an antiquated mummy should be elected president of this society.

THE Mexican government has issued an order permitting goods to pass the frontier custom houses to their destination. This is believed to be an important step toward facilitating commerce between the two republics.

The cranks have begun early upon Governor Cleveland. The man who assaulted him a day or two since has given such evidences of insanity that a commission has been appointed to try him.

CENTRE ATABANA is about to regain some of its old-time prestige so cleverly told by Bill Arp. A couple of prisoners, one of them a woman, were taken from the jail and hanged to a neighboring tree, where daylight found them.

THE long drouth, which has not been broken in some sections, is tavorable to fires. All through Georgia the destruction caused is great. The burning of Barnesville, Cochran. Acworth and finally Kingston, derived much of its force from the susceptibility of everything to blaze at the slightest provoca-

ATTENTION having been called to the scandalous perticipation of Pensions Commissioner Dudley in the election in Ohio, it is now announced that his place is fully filled by an subordinate, and that his resination is in the hands of the president, to take effect November 10th. If the letter of resignation itself should be made public it would be found to conclude with the words "burn this.'

THE trial of the libel case of Blaine against the Indianapolis Sentinel is to take place on December 23, almost six months after the institution of the suit. Mr. Blaine was loud in his demands that the trial be brought to a speedy termination, knowing at the time that it would not occur until after the election, if ever at all. Thus the whole farce is shown up in its true light. It was one of those characteristic dramatic efforts of Blaine. The trial will never occur, the evidence, unexpectedly to Mr. Blaine, having become too conclusive to be agreeable. Mr. Blaine has evidently showed, however, that he has the United States courts on his side.

THE work of the Young Men's Democratic League is highly commendable. Similar organizations in every city in the state would result organization in this city is scarcely a month old and numbers among its members over a hundred of the city's young men of all business and professions. It is to be hoped that the action of the league last night in appointing a committee to raise in the city a fund for the national campaign of the democracy will meet with a substantial approval Every dollar that can be put in New York and Indiana during the next two weeks will have its effect. The republicans are drawing an almost limitless corruption fund, contributed by monopolists and lobbyists, and extorted from unwilling officials whose only option is to pay or go. To meet this fund and its effect the national democratic committee have appealed to democrats throughout the country. Let every democrat give his little, and if the committee does not visit him in person, send it. It will be put where it will do most good.

THE COMING STATE FAIR.

The state fair which opens in Macon on the 27th instant, promises to be the greatest success in the history of the agricultural so

It is already settled that the display will be full. In fine cattle and stock it will be fuller than ever before. Every stall has been taken long ago and more are now being built. In agricultural machinery the outlook is more than good, and in crops the old state will just show what an empire she is. The racing will be fine, the purses being large enough to attract the best horses. The addi tion of athletic sports will draw thousands of spectators and amuse all who are drawn by other attractions.

The people will do well to patronize this fair. It is going to be one of the wholesome old-fashioned fairs, now unhappily giving way to expositions. It will give us a week of fun and sight-seeing, and of hand-shaking with friends and neighbors, and of talking over Georgia's affairs with Georgians. I will do everybody good to take a day or two off, and spend it in the lovely central city. Let us make the affair such a success this year that it will become a permanent instiiution, and grow with each year.

M'SWEENEY AND BLAINE. A witness in the person of Daniel Mc Sweeney, the "suspect," has crossed the sea to tell what he knows about Blaine's "intense Americanism." Mr. McSweeney related the story of the wrongs he had suffered while Mr. Blaine was secretary of state before a great Irish audience in the New York acade my of music. He first came to this country in 1852; in 1853 he took out naturalization papers in Allentown, Pennsylvania, and a year later he went to California, where he engaged in the buying and selling of cattle. He had followed this business twenty-two years, when his healfh broke down, and his

and one of his first acts was to hoist the American flag over his dwelling in Donegal. He went on a lawful errand, always expecting to return to California if he recovered his health. The deputy lord lieutenant of the county lived opposite his house, and was evidently nettled by the American flag. Mr. McSweeney refused to vote because he considered himself an American citizen, and when he was summoned as a juror he pleaded the same reason. He had been in Ireland only a year and a half when he regained his health, and he tried to sell his property for the purpose of returning to his adopted country. The famines of 1879 and 1880 depreciated property to such an extent that he could not obtain a fair price, and he was compelled to remain. The warm-hearted Irishman was in sympathy with the peace movement led by Mr. Parnell, but in no instance did he go beyond the bounds of sympathy. Still he was dogged by detectives, until finally under the coercion act he was seized in the dead hour of the night, torn from the bosom of his family while suffering from a severe attack of illness; dragged a distance of 200 miles, was sentenced to eighteen month's imprisonment without trial by judge odged in a cold damp dungeon in Dundalk In good part we have given Mr. McSwee ney's own words. Now what did Mr. Blaine do? He had charge of our foreign relations. In the first place that eminent anglo-maniac Mr. Lowell, represented us with Mr. Blaine's consent at the court of St. James. Mr. Mc weeney appealed to him through the vice consul at Dundalk, claiming protection as an American citizen and demanding the cause of his arrest and detention. Mr. Lowell first stated that the case had been referred to Lord Granville, and then he wrote Mr. McSweeney that he was in correspondence over the case with who? None other than Mr. James G. Blaine, secretary of state. Well, to make a long story short, not another word did he get from either Mr. Lowell or his chief, James G. Blaine; the coercion act expired by its own terms, and he was released after a confinement of fourteen or jury, without charge or accusation, and months and ten days. Not only did he make known by letters his condition and his demands for a trial to Minister Lowell, but Mrs. McSweeney made a direct appeal to Mr. Blaine. Neither lifted a hand in his behalf, or uttered a word of remonstrance against the inhuman treatment he was subjected to. All he asked was a trial, and he could not get either Mr. Blaine or Mr. Lowell to help him, although he was an American citizen. "All Mr. Blaine had to do," says McSweeney, "was to cable to England, 'Release McSweeney or try him. They couldn't have tried me, for their was nothing to try me on, and they must have released me." This is the plain story of the case, and if there is an Irishman who can read it without being fully convinced of the sham nature of Mr. Blaine's new pre tensions to intense Americanism, he must be one that is deaf to the wrongs of his own country and to the evidence of actual exam

THE FLORIDA CAMPAIGN.

There have been signs for some time past that the republican thieves have organized a still-hunt in Florida, but recently there have been developments going to show that instead of relying upon legitimate methods they propose to repeat, in a somewhat different shape. the Bill Chandler frauds of 1876. As one of the results of this, those who live near the Georgia and Florida line have noticed during the past few weeks a considerable movement of negroes from this state in the direction of the orange groves of Florida. How long this movement has been going on it is impossible to say, but the increasing numbers during the past few weeks has attracted the atte of those who have been on the watch for symptoms of republican fraud.

It is a movement, too, that seems to be widespread; that is to say, it is not confined to the negroes who live near the Florida line. It reaches to Savannah, to Macon, and even to Atlanta. We have heard recently of quite a number of Atlanta negroes who, though they had comfortable situations here, have suddenly discovered that they have pressing business in Florida.

We have no doubt that this importation of Georgia negroes to Florida is a part of the programme of the republican desperadoes to carry the latter state by fraud. The same tactics were practiced in Ohio at the recent election, and they were found to work like a charm. Thousand of negroes were sent across the river from Kentucky and the democrats of Ohio, knowing the facts, appeared to be powerless to prevent the They lacked both nerve and discipline, elements of success that are certainly not lacking among Florida democrats. We simply desire to put our Florida friends on their guard. Thousands of negroes. according to all accounts, are to be sent to Florida, and it is only necessary to inform the democrats of that state of the fact. They have ample training and resources to meet such contingencies.

COMPENSATION OF THE DROUTH.

There has been a good deal of complaint about the drouth. In the agricultural regions it is said to have cut short the cotton crop. Turnips have been killed out, and all garden truck has disappeared from the face of the earth-all, that is to say, except the bluestem collard, which is waiting for frost to give it the consistency of marrow when cooked, and an exquisite flavor all its own. This fact in itself is some compensation for the drouth; come cold, come hot, come drouth or come rain, happy is the man who can have boiled collards for dinner and fried collards for supper.

But there are other compensations. If the cotton crop has been cut short by the drouth, it cannot be said that the price has been interfered with. The fields are white with the snowy staple, and its whiteness de serves the name. It is glorious weather for picking, and the cotton is so clean and of such beautiful fibre, that the gentlemanly sampler, with his plug hat and gimlet cannot by any possibility muster up an excuse for applying his heart-rending technicalities. The fair hands of the season have happily merged all grades into one. There is no storm-cotton: there are no "stains;" and we pity the expert who has gall enough to stand by a snowy white bale, and, as it were, in the very face of nature, speak of it as "ordinary" or use some other term of depreciation calculated to over-balance the accuracy of Fairbank's scales.

In the cities the dr

in abundance, but there is compensation for the discomforts of the dust in the cool days and nights which give us something of a foretaste of the dreamy delights of Indian summer. There is an unmistakable flavor of autumn in the air. The chrome yellow of the hickory trees seems to be a reflection from the sumach torches, and the blue haze the poets love to sing of, appears to lift the hoizon in the air and carry it further away.

When the cold winds come, and the never ending clouds whirl over the hills in a slanting mist, we will all agree that the drouth was not as bad as it might have been.

THE CONGO CONFERENCE.

Germany has taken the lead in calling a conference in Berlin to settle the quarrels that have arisen in connection with the con trol of the great African river that our American Stanley, in co-operation with the Belgian king, opened to the world. Germany wants more room for her people, and she has already established protectorates at Walfisch bay and in the Bight of Biafra, and she does not propose to be shut out of the great Congo basin, where 80,000,000 people are in need of articles of civilization. It is already settled that the conference will be held. England, Holland, Portugal and Italy demanded that the work of the conference should be confined to a regulation of commerce in the Congo country, without taking up the subject of territorial rights. It is understood that the reply of Prince Bismarck was satisfactory to these powers; but it is difficult to see how the Congo question can be thoroughly settled unless the territorial claims are adjusted As affairs stand Portugal claims to control the lower Congo, and England has entered into a treaty with Portugal that respects the latter's claims. Up the river there is a conflict between De Brazza, a representative of France, and the International African association: in which Stanley and the king of the Belgians are the leading parties. The French claims are in conflict with the claims of the International association, and if Portugal can collect tolls at the mouth of the river there s no need of a conference.

The European nations have been engaged n a grand game of land-grabbing, and it will e fortunate if the wonderful work of Stanley can be opened to all the world through the adoption at the Berlin conference of some scheme similar to the Danubian commission. or some other device that will keep down the rapacity of any one people in the interest of all that have goods to sell or ships to load. Such a result is possible, even if the territorial questions are not fully defined or settled. This country is to participate in the conference, and our interests all lie towards a free

Carlyle regarded the war as merely the efflorescence of the "nigger emancipation agitation" which he despised. THE Philadelphia Press is amazed at the progress Georgia as shown by recent statistics. For the decade ending 1870 Georgia outstripped the whole south, her manufacturing industries increasing over 100 per cent. In the decade ending 1880 Geor gia led all the southern states except Kentucky and Virginia. Since 1880 her cotton mill capita has increased $6,000,000. To-day she has 70 mills, 7,843 looms, 330,100 spindles, employing 10,000 hands, and consuming 100,000 bales of cotton. The product of the Georgia mills is nearly one-half of the entire southern product.

Carried in this manner over the surface of the ground, the rod is said to turn or dip when near treasure, veins, springs, etc The divining rod was used in ancient times, mainfor the discovery of guilt, the decision of impor tant questions, or the indication of future events. Its physical application seems to have been of later origin. In the seventeenth century various treatises were written on the subject and the peculiar ac tion of the rod was attributed to a divine gift, evil spirits or natural affinity between the material of the rod and the substance affecting it. In the eighteenth century the electrical theory of the rod was advanced, but this was thoroughly refuted by lestroying the insulation of the operator withou his knowledge, thus proving that such knowledge was an essential part of the so-called electrical ac tion. It is now believed that the motion of the rod is due to minute, unconscious muscular move ments caused by the imaginaton or intuitive or conscious decision or expectation of the opera tor. This lingering remnant of a once powerful uperstition is now considered entitled to no mor respect than planchette and similar frauds.

A POLITICAL TALK. What a Prominent New Yorker Says of Dem

He is on his way to Alabama, for the purpose of estab ishing an iron plant, with $500,000 or more capital. Mr. Van Doren is a man of great intelligence, and is well posted on the political situation in the pivotal state. He was seen by a Constitution man ast evening at the Markham house, and asked to ive his views on the probable result at the coming election in New York. "Which side will win?" was asked. 'Undoubtedly, the democrats. This opinion is held by hundreds of business men on Wall street, and you would be astonished to know how strong is the defection among life-time republicans, cannot say that all of the dissatisfied ones w support Gieveland, but they certainly will n support Cleveland, but they certainly will not support Blaine."

"What are your reasons for thinking so?"

"Well, I might give you a number of sound reasons. You know, doubtless, of the strength of the young men's republican club of Brooklyn. The membership numbers over 1,200, and fully 35 per cent of them, by actual count, have openly signified their intention not to support Blaine. In this same club, eleven out of twenty-one members of the executive committee resigned at a late meeting when resolutions were introduced indosing Blaine. Not only this, but last week a paper was circulated among the members of this club asking for signatures to a movement in opposition to Blaine, and when I left New York over 300 names out of the 1,200 had been obtained. They are to hold a meeting to-night, I believe, and it is probable that over 400 signatures will be appended to the list. These men are influential and can control many hundreds of votes. In New York city the Union league, the largest club in the country, is composed of 3,000 or 4,000 members. Twenty-five per cent of them or more are known positively to be against Blaine. These igures have been obtained from a direct, personal canvass."

"What about the Kelly gang"

against Blaine. These figures have been obtained from a direct, personal canvass."

"What about the Kelly gang?"

"There may, probably, be 20,000 Tammany voters against Cleveland. But this will be more than doubly offset in the interior by the republican defection, and by Cleveland's rapidly increased constituency. In my mind, New York will certainly go democratic."

"What will the St. John and Butler vote be?"

"About equally divided in New York, and this yote, you know, will be drawn largely from the republican ranks. Their total vote combined will not reach 40,000, or twice as much as the Tammany defection. But even the Grady followers may ever had surer hopes of earrying New York, and ou will see a good, round majority rolled up for leveland and Hendricks in November." As Mr. Van Doreu is not a professed democrat, ut simply one by preference in this campaign, is views are important, and will be read with no ttle interest.

THE HEADLIGHTS RUNNING INTO ATLANTA.

e Tennessee Assessment Law--Fred Wolfie's Pisns--From Cuthbert to Bainbridge--An Improved Electric Railway--Local

The rumor is general in Valdosta that the work will be resumed on the Florida Midland and Georgia railroad at an early day—probably about October 29.

The packet schooner, Ridgeway, has just reached Brunswick, having made the remarkable time of four days from New York. This will make the sea captains open their eyes. Tickets to Rome and return are now offered ty the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia believed at $3 every day except Sunday, when the price for the round trip is reduced to $2. The trains make excellent time, and are finely equipped in every particular.

The Chattanooga Times recently published the statement that the Tennessee coal and iron company had contracted with Morris Bross, of Birmingham, for 200 tons of iron ore daily for five years. The report was discredited by several papers. A few days since Mesers, Morris made their first shipment on the contract. There were 300 tons in the shipment and at present that amount is being received daily in this city and shipped to Tracy City and South Pittsburg. The ore is shipped via the Alabama Great South railroad.

The Tennessee Assessment Law. The Railway Age, of the 9th inst., has the ollowing in regard to the assessment phase of n law: the cemmission law:

The state of Tennessee is endeavoring to enforce an assessment of $50,000 per mile on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad and of $25,000 per mile on the Louisville and Nashville, and these roads have appealed to the United States court for protection. Such an assessment is simply outrageous.

The highest assessment in the state of The highest assessment is simply outragoous. The highest assessment in the state of Kansas, for example, is $7,5000 per mile, on the Atchison, Topeka and Sants Fe, while several of the roads are rated from $3,000 to $5,000, and one or more as low as $1,200 per mile. In Illinois the assessment, including that on all the immensely valuable terminely property of the roads averages only terminal property of the roads, averages only $7,500 per mile. In view of the record of Tennessee for plundering the holders of railway securities by repudiation, choking the railways by a rate fixing commission, and killing them by taxation, railway building is not likely to progress very rapidly in that state.

Fred. Wolffe's Plans. The Birmingham Age has this item:
An Age reporter had a conversation with Mr. Wolffe at the hotel last night. Naturally, Mr. Wolfie at the hotel last night. Naturally, railroad matters was one of the principal topics, and in this connection something of considerable interest to Birmingham transpired. This was while Mr. Wolfie was explaining eartain changed conditions affecting his project of making a through railroad from Memphis to the seaboard at Brunswick by building the road about completed from Memphis to Holty Springs, Miss., and by extending the Cinly Springs, Miss., and by extending the Cincinnsti, Selma and Mobile road fram Akren to Holly Springs in one direction and from Montgomery to Albany, Ga., in the other. Mr. Wolfe said that one of the most important developments from the abandonment of this velopments from the abandonment scheme was that the Georgia Central and Sascheme was the Georgia Central a rida and Western roads have ed to extend the Goodwater road to this city. He thought work would be commenced early next spring.

Mr, Wolffe went on to say that one thing that puts his great projected through line out of the realm of the probable is the sale of the Brunswick and Western railroad to the Georgia Central, which has no interest in an extension beyond the Cincinnati, Selma and Mobile. Mr, Wolffe and his associates transferred the Brunswick and Western road to the Georgia Central company the first of September. He is still president of the Cincinnati, Selma and Mobile.

THE NORFOLK AND WESTERN. A Financial Arrangement by Which the Company is Strengthened. PHILADELPHIA, October 21 .- The Norfolk and Western railroad company has just completed an agreement with a syndicate of American and English bankers, by which $150,000 is to be furnished the company in exchange for a like amount of adjustment mortgage bonds, maturing in forty years, and preferred stock, part of that owned and in the company's treasury, provides the company with an amount sufficient to pay its floating debt, and place it in a strong financial light. The company in its contract with the syndicate, has reserved the right to offer bends of stock pro rata to its shareholders, prior to March lat, 1885. The liabilities and annual interest charges of the company are not increased by this issue, it being merely a substitution of a long time bond for its unfundenced.

Stocks as Reported in the New York Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, October 21.—The stock market, after an irregular opening, became firm and advanced raid on New York Central, forcing prices down from 89% to 87%. Union Pacific fell off 1% per cent, Lackawanna 1, and the other shares 1/8 to 3/4 per cent. It soon became evident that very little could be shaken out, and an improvement set in which carried prices up 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. All the leading stocks were in brisk borrowing demand, and the large crowd present animated the appear The inquiry for Union Pacific and New York Central shares was particularly urgent, especially in the case of Union Pacific, which would have commanded a still higher premium but for the fact that the firms representing bull operators lent the stock freely, in order to prevent shorts from covering at current quotations. The strength of the market induced considerable covering of short contracts, and this assisted the up per cent, Northwest 1%, St. Paul 1½, Lackawanna 1¾, Lake Shore 1½, Missouri Pacific 1¾, New York Central 134, Northern Pacific preferred 114, Union Pacific 214, and Western Union 134. After 2 o'clock the market weakened on the rumor of the failure of a great London cotton house. At the close a fresh buying movement set in and the market closed strong. Compared with last night's close, prices were 1/61% per cent higher for Canada Southern, St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville, Kansas and Texas, New Jersey Central, Erie, Oregon Transcentinental, Omaha, Union Pacific, and Western Union, and 1/4 to13/4 per cent lower for the remainder of active shares. THE CHICAGO MARKET. Features of the Speculative Movemen. s in Grain and Produce. By telegraph to The Constitution.

CHICAGO, October 21-The wheat market was rxcited at times to-day, and toward the close of the eegular board there was a sharp rally causing shorts to cover freely. The market 1%c over yesterday. Receipts were very large, numbering 689 cars, while the visible supply report showed an increase of nearly 21/2 million bushels. Notwith-standing this the market developed strength, and at the close of the regular board was in a nature of hurrah. On the afternoon board rumers of a commercial crash in Liverpool caused the market to take a very heavy tone, and values dropped off rapidly, a greater portion of the advance being The closing quotations were 731/2c for October, 741/c for November, 761/6761/4c for December and 77c for January.

Corn ruled irregular on the regular board, with a sharp decline for near options, after a firm opening, but rallying again toward the close. The market with only slight variations from yesterday. On the afternoon board there was a severe drop, the market for October and November dropping to almost the lowest figures of the year. The market closed at 46c for October, 44%c for November, 39%c for all the year and 39% for May.

Oats firm, closing at 25% for October, 26% for November, 25% for all the year and 29% for May. Pork ruled firm and higher on the regular board, but a portion of the advance was lost on the after-noon board, closing at $15,75 for October, $11.85 for all the year and $12.00 for Janu Lard firm at $7.15 for October, $7.05 for Novembe and $7.07% for December

MADE WEALTHY SUDDENLY.

An Atlanta Man's Brain Brings Him a For-Mr. James F. Dyer, a young Atlantian, has suddenly found himself rich. Mr. Dyer was born and raised in Atlanta, and in his native city has made his living by hard and faithful work. He has always been of an inventive turn of mind, and for some time past has been devoting his leisure time to experiments. Return of mind, and for some time past has been devoting his leisure time to experiments. Recently he succeeded in securing a "treadle motion" which he has patented and from which he is destined to grow rich. This "treadle motion" has been successfully applied to sewing machines and other light running machinery where such motion is applicable. The motion when applied to sewing machines is very similar to that of walking, in fact the same muscles are brought into action as when walking. It is a well known fact that the greater number of female complaints so disastrous to the lives of wenten, is directly traceable to the use of the sewing machine as it is to-day. Knowing this fact, Mr. Dyer has shown his invention as applied to sewing machines to several physicians of this city, all of whom feel confident it will do away with the destructive influence the common movement now exercises over the health of wennen. Among those physicians who have examined the new invention are Drs. James F. Alexander, F. J. Word, G. G. Roy, William Perrin Nicholson, professor of anatomy and clinical surgery, Southern Medical college, and W. D. Bizzel, professor Southern Medical college.

A Happy Marringe Last Night at the Residence of Mr. James Loyd.

Last night the residence of Mr. and Mrs.
James Loyd was the seene of a happy marringe. Mr. W. D. Williamson was united in marringe to Miss Ratie Clarke, a most fovely and accomplished young lady, and a sister of Mr. Peter F. Clarke. The parlor was tasted that place are preceded by the attendants, Mr. Peter F. Clarke and Miss Clara Loyd. Rev. Father Kirsch then performed the marringe ceremony tupplementing the rites with a few appropriate words of counsel. The ceremony was quite impressive and beautiful. The bride was charmingly attired in a handsome red silk. After the ceremony the company particle of delightful refreshments, after which the excenting was spant in pleasant conversation.

Mr. Williamson is bead book keeper for H. A. Fuller a Son, and occupies an envisible position in the estimation of the business people and his friends. He has won a jawel in his charming young bride. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Halliamson, pickle stand from Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Williamson, pick

LADIES' DAY.

Its Inauguration at the Capitol City Club This Afternoon.

This Afternoon.

Pursuant to the action recently had at a general meeting of the Capitol City club, the governing committee last week selected Wednesday as "ladies" day." Every Wednesday the club liouse will be open for the reception of ladies from 11 a. m., to 6 p. m. To-day this pleasant custom will be inaugurated. It is expected that the elegant parlors of the club will be sulvened this afternon by the presence of many of the ladies of the city and their visiting friends. The establishment of this day is enthusiastically indorsed by the members. They regard it as a new departure, which will do good in many ways. It will athich will do good in many ways. It will at-rich will do good in many ways. It will at-rich the members the pleasure of entertaining eir lady friends in one of the most beautiful ab houses in the south. Besides it will re-ove all misapprehensions as to the objects of e club and as to the method in which it is inducted. The ladies who strand will find conducted. The ladies who attend will find nothing that the most fastidious taste cannot approve, and will see what a charming, and at the same time, innocent place the gentlemen have fitted up for their social gatherings. To-day will need the same time the same time time that the same time time the same time time to be same time. have fitted up for their social gatherings. To-day will mark a new era in the history of the club, and every Wednesday will hereafter be heartily welcomed by the members. The club, by the way, though only a year and a helf old, already has a namesake. A similar institution has just been organized in Columbus, Ohio, and strange to say, it is the first gentlemen's social club ever established

ELECTION SUPERVISORS. To be Appointed Friday—The Usual Supply of Deputy Marshals Probable.

Captain John L. Conley, chief United States supervisor for this district, yesterday notified Colonel N. J. Hammond, the democratic nominee, that the various supervisors for the different precincts would be appointed by the different precincts would be appointed by the United States district court in a few days, and asked that he submit the names of such persons as the democrate desired appointed supervisors. Colonel Hammond made out a list and gave it to Captain Conley yesterday. Captain allow when asked if there would be a y special deputy marshals appointed for action day ead he saw no necessity for their reviews. He thinks that is it is to be a marginal election these should be followed as were visors to see that all goes fair, but that the special deputies might be dispensed with. The matter of their appointment rests entirely in the discretion of the United States marshal. Mr. Bryant is out of the city, but the impression at his office and the opinion of most of the leading republicans in the city is that the usual number of deputies will be on duty at the polls on the day of the presidential election. There have been United States deputies in Atlanta at every presidential election since the war, and they may be tial election since the war, and they may be looked for on the fourth of next November In 1876 there were

In 1876 there were scores of deputies on duty in Atlanta; but the number was far smaller in 1880, and probably there will not be a great many of them this time. Prominent democrats who were asked yesterday about the proposed appointment of supervisors and deputies signified their complete acquiescence in the employment of any number of them. One "bourbon" said:

"Why, certainly. We have no objection to all the supervising and deputizing they may choose to put about the polls. All the deputies and supervisors that can be mustered wen't keep Georgia from giving Cleveland a whopping majority, and I don't believe there will be a sign of a scrimmage in the state on that day." The chances are, therefore, that the deputies will have a good easy time of it in Georgia with little amusement except the privilege of seeing the Cleveland majority roll up into the thousands and tens of thousands.

DROPPING TO PIECES.

Sad Fate of the Alleged St. John Electoral Ticket for Georgia.

Ticket for Georgia.

The St. John electoral ticket has been out only three or four days. It has not been exposed to any severer treatment than one or two newspaper publications, but it bids fair to drop to pieces before election day. In Sunday's Constitutions two prominent temperance officials showed that it did not represent any of the recognized temperance organizations in the state, and that it would not be respected by any considerable part of the temperance element in Georgia. Yesterday their predictions were verified by the authoritative announcement in Trac Constitutions that Mr. Bush, of the eight district, Mr. Freeman, of the fourth, and Mr. Manly, of the seventh, had taken their names off the list of electoral candidates. Yesterday a gentleman in this city who has been man, of the fourth, and Mr. Manly, of the seventh, had taken their names off the list of electoral candidates. Yesterday a gentleman in this city who has been prominent in temperance work for years, said, "I am bot surprised. I expected others to announce that they will not run on that ticket. I believe that as the sensible temperance men come off of it you will see them substituted with Butler or at least with anti-Cleveland men. I don't think that every one of those who put out this ticket had such a purpose but I do believe that the moving spirit back of it was the same spirit which urged the Georgia temperance convention to jump at anything to "split the solid south." The temperance people in all the ninety-seven cold water counties of this state are not in that business, and they can't be caught by such a cheap trick. But there is little use of hitting at this scheme. You hear more of it now than you will as the election comes on. It is already the deadest failure I ever saw."

SHOT IN THE SHOULDER.

Lew Johnson Sends a Ball Through Bill Motris's Shoulder. Morris's Shoulder. Vesterday afternoon rumors of a duel be-tween two young men floated about the city, Vesterday afternoon rumors of a duel between two young men floated about the city, and for a short while created quite a sensation. The rumor declared that Lew Johnson and William Morris, two young men, had fallen out about a young lady, and with friends and surgeons had sought the cool shades of Grant's park, where they exchanged shots with fatal result. An investigation of the rumor, however, exploded the sensation, and developed the fact that the parties to the alleged duel were negroes and that the duel was nothing but an ordinary shootingscrape. Johnson is a young negro who lives east of the cemetery, while Morris is a middle aged man. Yesterday evening Morris was passing near Johnson's home when a dog ran out into the street, and bit Morris in the leg. Morris tried to kill the dog, and this brought Johnson to the front. Quite a quarrel ensat Johnson. Johnson quickly sought his hip pocket, and drawing a pistol therefrom, freed at Morris, who turned to flee, as he obtained a sight of the pistol. Three shoots were fired, and one ball passed through Morris's left shoulder, making a slight but bloody wound.

POLICEOFFICERS CHARGED WITH THE CRUEL TREATMENT

Of a Family of French People Who Had Met to Cele ate the Return of a Member of the Family to the House of His Mother and Brother— The Policemen to be Prosecuted. This morning at nine o'clock a very singular ase will be called for trial before Judge Pitchford. The defendants are three policemen

Officers West, Hilderbrand and Brenning, who are charged with a very serious assault upon. the Nicolle family, who are French operatives at the Fulton cotton factory. The family consists of an old lady seventy-two years old and two sons and a daughter-in-law. In the melee with the police the old lady received a bruise under the chin, a bruise over the nose and one over the right eye, also a braise on the wrist and others on the shoulder and back. It is said that the old lady bled profusely from the mouth and nose, and Dr. Goidtsneven, who was called to her side, says she is in a critical condition and may die from the injuries and nervous shock caused by the excitement.

About three years ago there came to Atlanta uite a number of these French people to work in the cotton factories. All of them work in the cotton factories. All of them could not secure employment here and some of them went to Augusta. Among those who stopped in Atlanta was the Nicolle family. One of the brothers, Louis, however, went to Augusta. A few days ago Louis came back to Atlanta and was engaged at the Falton mills. He had not been seen by his mother and brother for two years, so they say, and preparation was made to kill they say, and preparation was made to kill the fatted calf in honor of his return. A keg of beer was secured, a big dinner prepared and of beer was secured, a big dinner prepared and Sunday some friends were invited in. The party was then made up of the old lady, the two sons, Charles and Louis, and the two friends, Louis and Alfred Trozier, and the daughter-in-law. After dinner the party got to singing, but according to their statement soon quit and one man read a French paper to the others. Of the occurrences that followed, they make the following statement. They say the old lady met the officers at the door and exclaimed in French that her sons had done nothing. She claims that she was knocked thereupon down, and it seems that a general melee followed, which resulted in the Frénch being badly battered. The Frenchmen say they only wanted to get their coats and hats, but the officers mistook their intentions, as they could not understand their words, and supposed they were trying to escape. It was doubtless a lively racket, four on a side and a sort of Babel of language. One Frenchman rushed around excitedly shouting in broken English the only words he knew of the queen's tongue:

"My Got! you bet! me no fight! My Got! youthet! me no fight!"

The men were carried to the police station, locked up, and were

Remembering Hunter's experience with the family and fearing that he would be compelled to hurt some one, Mounted Officer West telephoned the city prison asking for assistance. Patrolman Hildebrand and Brenning were sent to his aid, and with the watchman the three officers entered the house. What followed their entrance is best told in the language of Mounted Officer West. He said:

One of them told us distinctly that they were in their own house and that they would not go with us. I don't know what they can do now, but I can prove by a hundred people that they could talk good English last Sunday."

TRUE LOVE REWARDED. Marriage of Professor A. J. Birmingham to

Miss Katie A. Fennia.

Last night at seven o'clock at the residence of Mr. C. O. Watson, on Hightower street, Rev. Howard Crunnley united in the holy bonds of wedlock, Professor A. J. Birmingham and Miss Katie A. Fennin. There were present a few special friends, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Watson, the father of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, Miss Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Dabney and others. The bride appeared very lovely. She was dressed in an elegant cream colored satin with rich trimmings, while the groom appeared in the conventional full dress suit. Miss Katie A. Fennin.

The happy event of last evening was the consummation of a long and romantic engagement. Professor Birmingham met Miss Fennin at her home in Princeton, N.J., three years ago. A mutual affection soon developed and their yows were nighted. There were and their vows were plighted. There were objections to their marriage at that time by relatives on both sides, but they were faithful.

relatives on both sides, but they were faithful. They met in Baltimore about a year and a half ago, when their yows were renewed. One evening the professor called for Miss Fennin to accompany him to the opera. On the way they stopped at the home of a minister and were married, with the understanding that their nuptials should be kept secret for eighteen months. Professor Birmingham returned to his home in Washington next day. A few months ago he moved to Atlanta, and soon resolved to make this his permanent home. He never saw his wife from the time he left her on that eventful evening in Baltimore until she stepped off the Air-Line train yesterday at moon. She had come to keep her vow. Last night all their trials were ended and the fidelity of years was rewarded by a mutual happiness which we trust will be unbroken.

The case of Cato Oliver, charged with the assault upon James M. Orr with latent to murder, was concluded in the superior court yesterday morning, and resulted in a verdict of guilty of stabbing. Oliver proved an excellent character for peace, sorriety and good credit. When called upon before sentence he said to the court that he was sorry the offense had been committed, and had regretted itever since. He thought he was acting in self-defense, and it was the first affray he had ever had with any one, white or black. Judge Hammond said the verdict was justified by the evidence, and he imposed a fine of $100 and costs, giving the defendant ten days in which to pay the same. The revival services at this church are being continued day and night with increased interest. The pastor, Rev. John M. Bowden, is an untiring worker, and by the help of his wife and the workers among the membership, a glorious work is being done for the Master. There are many bright conversions and many connecting themselves with the church. One feature of the meeting is that the children are becoming religious. MACON CIRCUIT. 5. 26. Argument continued. ending argument of Mr. Lyon, the court ad-red to 9:30 a. m., to morrow. Davy Crockett.

The ever popular idyl of the backwoods, "Davy Crockett," was produced by Mr. Frank Mayo, and his really excellent company at the opera house Jast night, and it was admirably presented and thor oughly enjoyed by all present. The applause during the rendities of the delightful romance during the renditien of the delightful romance was frequent, spontaneous and hearty. An extended notice of Frank Mayo and his play of "Davy Crockett," on the part of THE CONSTITUTION is unnecessary. His reception in Atlanta in the character of "Nordeck," or as "Davy Crockett," was all that he could have desired. He is too favorably known to the amusement loving people of our city to dwell at length upon his capabilities and talent as a delineator of character. He will receive a cordial welcome should he visit us again this season or next. His clever melodrama, "Nordeck," with its bright dialogue, its development of a powerful intrigue, with no dull spots in it, will more than bear a repetition," while his "Davy Crockett," is always attractive. $100 PRIZE. Spot Cash. Last week we opened an immense line of new fall and winter goods. Our house is lined with fresh bargains. We don't propose to set down and wait to be resurrected by a cyclone. We are progressive, and can't afford to wait for the old style profit of thirty-three per cent. We are a live house and doing the business. We can't stand still. We must be shoving along. So good-bye, and don't forget that we are selling goods cheap.

DAVID H. DOUGHERTY. Spot Cash.

There is no use in us writing all over four or five columns just to tell you that we are selling goods cheap, and that we want your trade. We can't afford to be undersold if we wanted to, for our Spot Cash system enables us to undersell others, and we are going to. The new shape Hats at 35 cents, and the three inch Ribbon at 15 cents are the favorites of the
